Figures to date show that Saltair Beach has had the largest patronage in its history, and the season is but half over. General Manager J. E. Langford is authority for the statement that the average daily attendance since the resort opened on May attendance for sixty days being upwards of 300,000. Mr. Langford further says that on the whole the business at the resort shows a substantial increase over last season, when Saltair had the tourist Elk convention on the Pacific coast and the great G. A. R. encampment in

With these big gatherings to draw make Salt Lake the gateway for unusual travel, and Saltair's patronage this season is about 20 per cent ahead of last year at this time, the gain is a clear one, and shows conclusively that the excess patronage has come direct from home people.

Will Electrify Line. This demonstrated fact is very gratifying to the management of the beach, and will doubtless mean that before the great resort opens next season many thousands of dollars will have been expended in making improvements. St. Mary's Cathedral choir day at Bailtair on Thursday, Aug. 11, will undoubtedly be a huge success. The excursion will be under the auspices of the St. Cecilia chorus and the children of Mary Sodality. About 150 of the latter organization will spend the afternoon and evening at the beach. Through the courtesy of Manager J E. Langford the little ones from the Kearn's St. Ann's orphanage will spend a happy day going out on the first train in the morning. The generous parishoners of the Cathedral will provide a bountiful lunch for the children. The members of the Junior choir and St. Cecelia chorus will be the guests of Rt. Rev. Bishop Scanlan and the members of the Cathedral thoir will be his guests at a banquet In the evening at 8:30. The Junior choir will give a program at 4 and 8

Prominent Attorney Is Stricken While on Pleasure Trip in Canyon.

As he was about to enjoy a luncheon with his wife under the shade trees at "The Quarries" in Emigration canyon yesterday noon, Wallace R. White, former attorney general of Utah and United States district attorney of Idaho in 1880, suffered a stroke of heart failure and died instantly. Attorney White leaves an estate of $75,-000, all of which he willed to Mrs. White.

Mr. and Mrs. White boarded an Emigration car at 11 o'clock vesterday forenoon and rode to the pleasure grounds known as "The Quarries." Mr. White selected a clump of trees under which to lunch. Mrs. White preceded him, and as she looked back when within fifty yards of the trees, she saw the body of her husband lying prone on the ground. It was taken to the mortuary chapel of Undertaker S. D. Evans, where it will be prepared for burial.
